

Credit Counselling Society

Programs and Services:

CCS provides free credit counselling; debts solutions and education through workshops and webinars.

Financial Literacy Topic Areas:

Workshops on money management, credit, debt, couples and money, kids and money, Christmas without credit, planning a vacation on a budget, super simple savings, budget breakers, and irregular income

Delivery Methods:

- Workshops are in-person and webinars are conducted over the internet and telephone.
- Counselling is done in person and by telephone depending on the client's location, schedule and preference.

Length:

- Counselling sessions are typically an hour.
- Workshops and webinars can range from 1 to 2 hours.

Cost: Credit Counselling is FREE
Public Webinars are FREE

Willing to Customize: Yes

Target audience: Canadian Consumers

Contact:

Stacy Yanchuk Oleksy
Director of Education and Community Awareness
Phone: 604-636-0212
Email: Stacy@nomoredebts.org

Want More Information?

Angie McLeod
604.721.3738

coordinator@communityliteracy.ca

Family Services of Greater Vancouver

Programs and Services:

Money Skills will help people on limited incomes to build their skills and access information to effectively manage their money and plan for a hopeful future.

Financial Literacy Topic Areas:

- Budgeting
- Banking
- Credit
- Consumerism

Delivery Methods:

- Money Skills is a 4 week workshop based program

Length:

- Varies by program

Target audience:

- Youth, Women, ESL and other consumers

Cost: FREE

Willing to Customize: Yes

Contact:

Jane Njogu
Facilitator
Phone: 604 638 3390 x163
Email: jnjogu@fsgv.ca

Tulia Castellanos
Manager
Phone: 604 638 3390
Email: tcastellanos@fsgv.ca

Web: www.fsgv.ca

Want More Information?

Angie McLeod
604.721.3738

coordinator@communityliteracy.ca

 @MRPM Literacy

 <http://www.facebook.com/MRPMLiteracy>

www.communityliteracy.ca

Vancity

Vancity - Each One, Teach One

Programs and Services:

The goal of Each One, Teach One is to strengthen financial literacy skills in order to improve the well-being, financial resilience and self-reliance of community members.

Financial Literacy Topic Areas:

- Basic Banking
- Basic Budgeting
- Loans
- Loans you don't want
- Credit Cards
- Credit History
- Preventing Identity Theft
- Understanding Contracts
- RRSP's and TFSA's
- Taxation and Filing

Delivery Methods:

- In person via powerpoint in a workshop format

Length:

- Varies by program

Target audience:

- New Immigrants and consumers who need financial assistance

Cost: FREE

Willing to Customize: Yes

Contact:

Eleanor Wong
Financial Literacy Program Manager
Phone: 604.648.5618
Email: Eleanor_Wong@Vancity.com
Web: www.vancity.com/financialliteracy

Want More Information?

Angie McLeod
604.721.3738

coordinator@communityliteracy.ca